BRYAN DECRIES EVOLUTION THEORY

Famous Statesman Speaks on "Fundamentals"

DARWIN THEORY A MENACE

Need of World Today To Get Back to God

Speaking before a large and appreciative audience, Monday evening in the Mead Memorial Chapel, William Jennings Bryan discussed God's law of reward as interpreted today. He took for his subject "Fundamentals", and he presented the controlling relation of the three fundamental relationships into which man enters; namely, government, society and religion.

"Most of the relationships into which we enter", said Mr. Byran, "we enter because we want to but these fundamental relationships we enter because we must. First, there is the matter of government; second, the relationship between man and society; third, man's relationship with God. These are relationships with responsibilities and you must live up to these responsibilities because they are important in your life."

Turning to the matter of government Mr. Bryan said, "My first proposition is the people have a right to have what they want in government. Only when the power to decide is lodged with the people have you a Democracy. This is the growing doctrine throughout the world." Here Mr. Bryan pointed out that measures which he had supported were not popular at first but they became popular after it was shown that such progressive measures would bring government nearer the people.

Terming the adoption of the eighteenth amendment as the "greatest reform ever secured by the ballot," Mr. Bryan pointed out that every nation had been cursed by intoxicants, and that the United States rose to the highest point attained by any nation when it adopted this amendment. "I never expected to live to see the nation dry", he said, "but while I was surprised then, I now expect to live to see the day when there will not be an open saloon under the flag of any civilized nation in the world.

"The great need of the world today is to get back to God. There is no moral precept binding upon the preacher in the pulpit that does not apply to the laymen in the pew." With this statement Mr. Bryan turned to what he considered the chief aspect of his lecture, namely, "Religion."

"Religion", said Mr. Bryan "begins where God begins. The Nebular hypothosis assumes that matter and force exist, but it doesn't tell us where they begin. That is a mystery. Mystery doesn't bother us in the dining room, it's only in the church that it bothers us. I believe in miracles. I believe that God could perform a miracle. But the scientists tells us that there is so much that he don't understand. My friends, if we try to live up to the things we do understand we'll be doing so much good that we won't be bothered about the things that we don't understand."

Coming to the climax of his address Mr. Bryan branded the Darwinian theory of evolution as the "greatest menace to the Christian religion and to Christian civilization." In a stirring appeal to his audience he

OPEN TICKET SALE FOR RALLY-BANQUET

Students Urged to Purchase Seats in Advance

MANY ALUMNI TO SPEAK

Dr. McGilton Toastmaster at Vermont Game Rally

With an appeal for early purchase of tickets the undergraduate sale of seats for the second annual Rally Banquet, November 11, was opened yesterday morning after Chapel. The committee is urging that students purchase their seats early that a fairly exact estimate of the total attendance may be had by the end of this week. Members of the committee are now conducting the sale.

According to the returns from the circular letter addressed to 1100 alumni and inviting them to attend the rally, the committee anticipates a total alumni attendance of seventy-five. Invitations to members of the faculty, not alumni of the College, were sent out this week and it is already evident that a large proportion of them will be present.

Dr. McGilton Toastmaster

The program of speakers will include Dr. William W. McGilton, former head of the Chemistry department, toastmaster, whose long association with the College makes his selection especially appropriate, President Paul D. Moody and Coach David B. Morey. The committee is further endeavoring to secure Hon. P. M. Meldon '80 of Rutland, considered one of the ablest after dinner speakers in the state. The Boston Alumni Association will be represented by L. W. Cluff '14, one time manager of football, while the New York Alumni Association will probably send Charles S. "Casey" Jones '15 as their representative. Invitations to address the gathering have also been extended to George R. "Dud" Drake '02, former all-American end with University of Pennsylvania, and Homer "Jack" Vail '15 of Randolph, former star twirler of the 'varsity nine.

Plan Six-Course Banquet

The banquet is scheduled to commence promptly at seven o'clock Friday evening, the eleventh. Mrs. Maude O. Mason, who is in charge of the catering, is planning an elaborate six-course turkey dinner. Waiters will be members of the Men's College.

Music will be provided by a five-piece orchestra led by W. H. Fitzpatrick '22, manager of football. An effort is also being made to assign a special table to members of the Glee Club who will lead in the singing of the College songs.

Sleeping accommodations will be provided the visiting alumni and other guests who so desire in Hepburn Hall and the several fraternity houses.

COMMUNITY RECEPTION TO PRESIDENT MOODY

An enjoyable, and delightfully informal, community reception was tendered President and Mrs. Moody Wednesday evening from 8 until 10 o'clock in the Congregational Church.

In the receiving line with Dr. and Mrs. Moody were Rev. H. C. Newell, pastor of the church, and Deacon and Mrs. J. E. Crane. The reception was arranged and handled by ladies of the church. Punch and cakes were served as refreshments.

BRYAN SEES HOPE IN DISARMAMENT

"Great Commoner" Discusses National Problems With Campus Reporter

Though Hon. William J. Bryan said that it had taken him sixty-one years to finally reach Middlebury College, it took him just twenty minutes to outline to a Campus reporter his position on some of the fundamental problems of the United States today.

Speaking first of the Conference on Disarmament to be called in Washington on November 11, he said "I cannot attempt to guess, what will be the outcome of the conference but I can hope. It is impossible to guess with any degree of accuracy in such a matter because it is important to know the hidden purposes of nations. Diplomacy has not yet become a frank and open art.

It is impossible to tell how much of a navy a nation may feel that it ought to have unless you know what work it thinks it has for a navy. The burden of armaments is so great that no nation is likely to stand out defiantly for large expenditures. If they defend them at all it will be on the ground of necessity and they may not be entirely candid in stating what they regard as necessary. Then too, the trading spirit has to be taken into consideration. They may want to get something in exchange. For these reasons I would rather hope than guess. A hope is based upon desire for peace, and that I have. A guess is based upon information, and that we lack.

Referring to the recent conference on disarmament held at Princeton University ad represented by practically all the colleges, Mr. Bryan said "I am glad that such a body has seen fit to pass the resolution, for every element helps."

Sees No Reaction to Prohibition

There is no reaction to prohibition, declared Mr. Bryan, and the parades and demonstrations against it have been only by small groups in different parts of the country.

Referring to the rail strike, Mr. Bryan said, "I am very glad that the strike has been settled. But what we need is a commission empowered to investigate so that the differences may

ST. LAWRENCE BOWS TO MIDDLEBURY 26-6

'Varsity Swamps Scarlet at Canton Saturday

THIRD CONSECUTIVE WIN

Drost Stars and Scores Three Touchdowns

Middlebury's fighting eleven followed up its 7-3 victory over Williams with another win and ran rough-shod over St. Lawrence University Saturday afternoon at Weeks Field, Canton, scoring four touchdowns and rolling up a final score of 26-6. The game was the third consecutive victory to be registered for the 'varsity and further demonstrated the power of the attack and strength of the defence Coach Morey has built up this year. It completely evenged the 10-0 defeat which St. Lawrence administered here last season.

Although Middlebury was rather slow in getting started and did not show evidence of a particularly brilliant offence until after the first period had closed, the outcome was never in doubt. Except for a few brief moments in the second period when St. Lawrence staged a determined rally and with the aid of five beautifully executed forward passes crossed the Middlebury goal line for their lone touchdown, the Middlebury men completely outclassed the New Yorkers in all departments of the game.

Middlebury Starts Scoring

Although St. Lawrence was able to hold Middlebury scoreless in the first quarter, the 'varsity lost no time in the following period. Within three plays after the teams changed goals, Drost had found a hole in the Scarlet line and dashed through for the first touchdown.

Middlebury scored one more in the same period when Captain Gollnick crossed the line after a series of line bucks and forward passes had carried the ball to within striking distance of the Scarlet goal. This score proved points sufficient to take the Canton eleven into camp.

The Blue scored twice again before the final wihstle blew, once in the two remaining periods. To Drost, Middlebury's scrappy, fast halfback, went the honor for these two final touchdowns.

No Score in First Period

The game started with Middlebury receiving. The kick-off was a short kick that bounded treacherously and rolled to the Middlebury 5-yard line before it was downed. A series of line bucks, featuring Drost and Gollnick, took the ball to midfield, where Quackenbush and Drost executed a beautiful forward pass that netted thirty yards.

Continued line drives brought the ball to about St. Lawrence's 25-yard line but here the 'varsity was penalized 15 yards for holding. Quackenbush dropped back to the 50-yard line and tried a drop but the kick fell short and St. Lawrence took the ball. The Scarlet running attack found the Blue line a veritable stone wall and after three attempts to gain by straight plunges, punted.

Middlebury took the kick and started an irresistible, steady march down the field that was interrupted only when Coach Morey's men had taken the ball to Canton's 5-yard line and

Get Behind and Help!

Last fall Middlebury revived a custom that had been latent for nearly a dozen years—the custom of an organized alumni and undergraduate reunion dinner at the college on the night preceeding the grand fiale to the 'varsity football season, the annual game with our ancient rivals, the University of Vermont. The tremendous success of this first Rally-Banquet in 1920 won the unqualified endorsement of the alumni, faculty and students alike, and warranted the institution of this feature as a regular addition to college activities.

Tickets to the Second Annual Rally-Banquet, "On the Eve of the Vermont Game", have been on sale to the students since yesterday morning. There should be no hesitation on the part of the undergraduates in responding to the committee's appeal for one hundred per cent student attendance. The attractions and obligations which a gathering of this character present are almost too evident to justify enumeration. It will suffice to say that it is something more than a mere last minute cheering practice, something more than a thoroughly enjoyable six-course dinner. It is a real opportunity for students, faculty and alumni to meet together on common ground and in a single interest, the interest of the college which they all love and reverence. It is a happy opportunity for the exchange of ideas; for alumni to learn what the undergraduate body is doing; for the undergraduates to hear prominent alumni speak on topics of mutual interest. And perhaps even more than this, it is an opportunity trat implies an obligation which no loyal son of Middlebury can dodge. The victorious 'varsity deserves recognition and appreciation for the wonderful work they have done this year and the splendid record they have made.

The uses to which the dollar and a half necessary to secure admission to the rally, could be put are manifold. Movies, candy, tobacco, all have their claims, but any sense of comparative values should decide at once the proper disposition of money that might serve for either these purposes or admission to the banquet. This is not a committee banquet for the alumni. Rather it is a rally designed to serve the whole college and approved and authorized by the undergraduate body. This committee serves only to execute their will. They need the wholehearted support of every man who entrusted the business of preparation in their hands.

Attention Freshmen!

What are you doing with your spare time? Has it ever happened to occur to you that you might be utilizing it advantageously both for the college and for yourself? Organizations and activities existing here today must have your support for their perpetuation. It is as imperative for you to give this support, as it is for them to receive it. Proper participation in outside activities is vital to you for a well-rounded development in college.

And remember that you can't participate in everything. You must select; you should concentrate. Choose the openings which hold the greatest interest for you, where you feel that your natural inclinations and abilities will work themselves out, most satisfactorily. Having made your selection, don't enter half-heartedly into work, whatever character it may be. Self-respect, if nothing more, demands that you give the best which you have to give. In just such measure as you give so will you receive.

Moreover, now is the time when college is making its most vivid and lasting impressions upon you, when you are forming thoughts and habits, which you will later find very hard to change. Now—this year—today—is the time for you to begin to take an active part in these out-side interests. The perpetual drifter, the person who always decides to begin tomorrow what he might have finished to-day, will find himself at the end of four years wondering why to-morrow with its planned accomplishments was so elusive. The momentum of an early start will carry you a long way. Start early.

FISKE JUBILEE SINGERS TO RENDER NEGRO SONGS

Middlebury College will have an exceptional opportunity Monday night to hear old negro melodies sung by one of the best negro organizations in the country. The Fiske Jubilee Signers who will render a choice program in Mead Memorial Chapel are probably the best known group of negro singers now in existence.

This vocal group was organized in 1871 for the purpose of raising money for Fisk University. They are coming to Middlebury out of devotion to Miss Adee F. Sweet who was a student in the Spanish School in 1920, and is now teaching at Fisk University.

Women Enjoy Hallowe'en Party

An attractive Hallowe'en party was given to the Women's College by the Y. W. C. A. Saturday evening in Pearson's Social hall. The room was tastefully decorated with jack-o'-lanterns, cornstalks, autumn leaves and black cats. The guests attended in fancy costumes.

After the usual annual Hallowe'en excursion by the freshmen through the underworld and the chamber of death, doughnuts and popcorn were enjoyed about a grate fire. Ghost stories, fortune-telling and dancing followed until ten o'clock when the party disbanded.

MRS. BRAINERD DIES FRIDAY EVENING

Wife of President-Emeritus of Middlebury Succumbs at Her Home—Funeral Held Yesterday

Mrs. Mary Ellen (Wright) Brainerd, wife of Dr. Ezra Brainerd, president-emeritus of Middlebury died at her home Friday evening. She was the daughter of Alva S. and Ellen E. (Kellogg) Wright and was born in New Hampshire, March 13, 1867, being therefore 54 years of age. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Dorothy and Katherine; one sister, Mrs. Anson Wright of Bristol and one brother, E. H. Eastman of Daytona, Fla.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock at the Brainerd residence.

Mrs. Brainerd was a graduate of Iowa Normal School, a member of the Congregational Church of Middlebury, Pi Beta Phi Sorority, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and many different societies of the Congregational Church.

200 ACRE FOREST FIRE ON COLLEGE WOODLAND

A forest fire which started Sunday afternoon on the mountain between Middlebury and Ripton has covered over 200 acres of woodland, including a large section of the Battell tract belonging to Middlebury College. For three days Fire Warden William Tisdale aided by a crew of men including some student volunteers, has been in the mountains fighting the spread of the flames. The heavy rain yesterday aided effectively in checking the fire, which was believed to have been started by an incendiary or from a carelessly thrown cigarette stub.

The flames were first seen from Middlebury about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon about half way up the mountain. At 3 o'clock three other fires were discovered near the foot of the mountain but these were soon extinguished.

PLAN FOR DISTINCTIVE 1924 SOPHOMORE HOP

Plans are now under way to make the 1924 Sophomore Hop, Thanksgiving eve, which will open the season of formal dances, one of the most enjoyable in many years. Miss Norma Foster '24 has been appointed by the committee to take charge of refreshments and she will be assisted by the girls of the sophomore class.

The choice of music has not yet been announced. Ferdis' orchestra from Rennsselaer Polytechnic Institute is regarded as the most likely choice though negotiations are also being carried on by Hunter '24 with the orchestras representing Dartmouth and Union.

Cruikshank '24 is in charge of decorations which will be in red and black, the class colors.

FRESHMEN FORM SECTION OF WETHERELL CLUB

At a meeting last Tuesday evening in Old Chapel freshman members of the Wetherell Debating Club organized for the purpose of developing a freshman debating team. R. L. DeGroff, chairman, O. W. Cooley, secretary, and L. C. MacAllister constitute the executive committee which was authorized to accept the challenge of the Albany Law School freshman team and to make arrangements for the debate. The freshmen will work as a section of the Wetherell Club.

COMMUNICATION

October 31, 1921

To The Editor of The Campus:—
Sir:—

It is a general custom to use the Pedagogy library not only as a study room but for everything from a coat room to a committee room. It is centrally located and very convenient for these purposes, but originally it was set aside for the use of the Pedagogy department and until some other arrangement is made students are requested to refrain from using it for their own personal affairs.

This room is really a branch of the central library and under the general supervision of the library staff. Order and quiet should be maintained in it, and it should be used only for library purposes.

MIDDLEBURY SPECIAL TO BURLINGTON NOV. 12

A special train to run to Burlington and return, November 12, the date of the Middlebury-Vermont game on Centennial Field, has definitely been arranged for by L. T. Wade '22, chairman of the 1921 Rally-Banquet committee. The train will leave Middlebury shortly after noon and will make the trip without intermediate stops, arriving at Burlington at about 2 P. M. The college band will make the trip on this train and will head the procession of the student body from the train to the football field. The usual fare to Burlington and return will be charged, and the train will be open to townspeople wishing to attend the game as well as to students.

G. CHATTERTON, OLDEST MIDD ALUMNUS, DIES

Member of Class of '57 Was Eighty-Nine Years of Age

Word has been received of the death on July 3, 1921 of German Hammond Chatterton of the class of '54. With the possible exception of Solomon Theophilus Allen of the class of '56 whose address has been unknown for a number of years, Mr. Chatterton was the oldest Middlebury graduate at the time of his death. He was born in Rutland, July 15, 1832, the son of Leverett and Mary (Jackson) Chatterton and prepared for college in Castleton and Burr and Burton Seminaries.

He entered Middlebury in 1850 and after graduation four years later he taught at Brandon Seminary for two years, during which time he studied law. He was admitted to the bar in 1856 and practiced for three years. From 1861-63 he was in civil service and in 1866 he was ordained after four years study at Auburn Theological Seminary. Besides serving as pastor for many churches throughout the country he was missionary for the Presbytery of Dubuque from 1870-71. In 1902 he was honorably retired by the Presbytery of Utica, N. Y.

He married Amorett Mazusan in March 1857, and in November 1868 was married again to Annie C. Spees. He is survived by five children.

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM TO MEET R. P. I. SATURDAY

Saturday, November 5, the cross-country team will meet R. P. I.'s fast aggregation at Troy. The trials to decide on the men to make the trip were held Saturday and were encouraging.

Shelvey '23 led the squad across the finish in 27 minutes and 543-5 seconds with Cole '22 a close second with 28 and Wexler '24 third with 29 minutes and 10 2-5 seconds. Fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh were taken by Whitten '24, Palmer '25, Gollnick '25 and Lee '25.

Cook '24 was unable to run due to an injured foot but will make the trip. Oliver '25 was taken sick while running and was not able to finish but will also make the trip. Palmer '25 has been laid up with a bad cold and has not been able to practice so there is a possibility of his not being able to make the trip.

The remaining places will be picked between Whitten '24, Gollnick '25 and Lee '25 on the basis of former try-outs.

Clarkson 0, Norwich 29

Saturday afternoon Middlebury's winning football eleven will tackle Clarkson Tech at Porter Field in the second home game of the season. Although Middlebury does not anticipate a very hard battle, the game should provide some interesting football.

Clarkson has not shown particular strength this season, having three defeats on its record and no victories. Norwich, which was defeated by the 'varsity 3-0, had no trouble with the Potsdam engineers and snowed them under with a 39-0 score.

The New Yorkers best record seems to have been their 0-0 tie with Hamilton in their second game of the season. In holding the Clinton team scoreless, Clarkson gave evidence of a fairly strong defensive.

'Varsity in Good Condition

The Middlebury squad suffered no serious injuries in the St. Lawrence game and will be able to send full strength against the Potsdam eleven. Although Ashley's wrist is mending rapidly it is probable that he will not be used for more than a short part of the game. Coach Morey's men will probably resort to straight football almost entirely against the engineers.

DEFER ACTION ON LETTER AWARDS

Undergraduate Ass'n Postpones Vote on Proposed Recommendations by Athletic Council

After discussion at the Undergraduate Association meeting last night in McCullough Gymnasium, final action on the suggested changes in the football letter award was postponed until a later date. At the previous gathering of that body a recommendation was passed that the Athletic Council amend their constitution so as to provide that any man participating in any two of the five major games of the football season should be awarded an "M".

This recommendation was rejected at a meeting of the Athletic Council yesterday afternoon and two suggestions were offered by the council as a substitution for the defeated amendment. The first recommendation provides that the letter requirement shall be one-half the total number of periods, quarters in the Norwich and Vermont games to count double; and the second that the requirement shall be one-half the possible quarters or five-eighths of the quarters against Norwich and Vermont.

VERMONT CHEMISTS TO HEAR DR. G. S. FORBES

The Vermont Section of the American Chemical Society will hold one of its annual meetings at Middlebury, Friday evening, November 4. Dr. George Shannon Forbes of the department of Chemistry at Harvard University will lecture on the subject of "Photo-Chemistry and Its Applications."

The meeting will be held in the lecture room of the Chemistry Building at eight o'clock and is open to the public. A large delegation of faculty and students are expected to attend from the University of Vermont and Norwich

Dr. Forbes is one of the most prominent physical chemists in America today and has made a number of valuable contributions to the study of Photochemistry, Atomic Weights and Electrochemical problems. He is a member of the American Academy and other prominent scientific societies.

MISS EMMA L. WILDER LEAVES MIDDLEBURY

Former Head of Women's Physical Education Goes to LaCrosse

Miss Emma L. Wilder, until recently head of the Women's Physical Education Department at Middlebury, left Saturday to accept a position in the La Crosse Normal School of Physical Education, La Crosse, Wisconsin, where she began her new work November 1. Miss Wilder came here this fall from the University of Pittsburg, and leaves only because of a greater professional opportunity.

Her successor has not yet been named, but negotiations are under way and it is hoped that some announcement regarding her may be made very soon. For the present the work of the department is being carried on by the upper classmen who are employing a schedule planned for them by Miss Wilder. The junior and senior method class have entire charge of the freshman work ,while the students of the Playground Course conduct their own classes.

BRYAN SEES HOPE IN DISARMAMENT

be adjusted before the dispute reaches a state of strike or lock-out.

Definies Purpose of Public-Speaking

Mr. Bryan believes the purpose of speaking to convince, not merely to please. "I conceive the purpose of speaking to be as the old quotation has so aptly put it, 'When Cicero speaks the people say, "How well Cicero speaks." When Demosthenes speaks the people say, "Let us go against Philip."' The world must be convinced of what is right and what is wrong; what is just and what is unjust, and not simply be entertained."

Miss Roche Addresses Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting held at Pearsons Social Hall Friday evening was conducted by Anne Littlefield '22 and Ruth Coolidge '22. The candidiates for membership in the association were installed, and the meeting was then given over to Miss Roche, secretary of the Student Volunteer Association, who gave a very interesting outline of the nature of the work the organization has been conducting, emphasizing its scope and the great opportunity for service. Miss Roche spoke of the struggle for education in foreign fields and also touched upon the question of disarmament.

Theta Chi Epsilon Tea

A tea to the ladies of the faculty was given by the Theta Chi Epsilon Sorority this afternoon from four to six o'clock in their chapter rooms. Sorority and independent representatives were present.

The Maqua Club entertained Miss Ruth Roche, a Student Volunteer, at a dinner Friday evening, October 28, at the Addison. Miss Roche was present at the Y. W. C. A. conference last June at Maqua.

ST. LAWENCE BOWS TO MIDDLEBURY 26-6

the whistle blew for the end of the quarter.

Middlebury Makes First Touchdown

Three plays only were necessary to take the ball across after the teams changed goals. Drost was sent over the line on an off-tackle play. Potratz failed to kick the goal.

St. Lawrence received and ran the ball back to the 40-yard line. After they had used up three downs in a vain attempt to pierce the Middlebury line, Atwood punted and the spheroid went out-of-bounds at about midfield. Middlebury began another triumphant march down the field and straight football aided with a brilliant aerial attack brought the play near enough so that Gollnick could score the second touchdown of the game. Potratz kicked the goal.

The Scarlet again chose to receive and ran the ball back to midfield before Middlebury gained possession on downs. After two substantial gains a costly fumble gave the pigskin to the New Yorkers and at this point St. Lawrence showed a flash of excellent football and opened up a wonderful overhead game. Five completed forward passes in rapid succession resulted in a touchdown by Flynn the Scarlet right half. Atwood missed the goal.

Two More in Second Half

Middlebury kicked off again in the third period and St. Lawrence attempted to continue the aerial attack that had worked so successfully in the previous quarter, but the Blue secondary defence braced and the offence failed. Middlebury took the ball on downs and through a series of line plays featuring Drost, the 'varsity had soon registered its third touchdown. Drost carried the oval over the goal and Potratz kicked the goal.

The fourth period saw St. Lawrence completely baffled by the Middlebury attack. After Drost had scored the fourth and final touchdown, Coach Morey sent in practically an entire new team, which held the New York eleven scoreless for the remainder of the period and made several substantial gains.

Drost Stars on Offensive

Lrost, who scored three of Middlebury's four touchdowns, was the strongest figure in the Blue advance, but Captain Gollnick played an equally brilliant game. The Middlebury leader did some beautiful work as interference.

Moynihan, Norton, Potratz and Gallagher put up stiff fights in the line and smeared many St. Lawrence plays behind the line of scrimmage. With the exception of Ashley whose sprained wrist has not yet mended, Coach Morey used the entire squad of twenty-seven men who made the trip.

BRYAN DECRIES EVOLUTION THEORIES

pleaded that "Christian people should see to it that in a Christian college the Bible should not be criticised and that students should be taught the teachings of Christianity.

"We want our young people to be leaders in all that is right and true. We want our people to get back to the old time religion that brought men to their knees in prayer. We want", said Mr. Bryan, "the religion that made Dwight L. Moody's name revered throughout the world and for centuries to come."

DR. M. TAYLOR SPEAKS AT VESPERS SERVICE SUNDAY

Dr. Malcom Taylor of Boston, Mass., spoke at vespers service Sunday in Mead Memorial Chapel.

Dr. Taylor spoke of the Christian life as the great adventure, the romantic guest which has attracted men to it since the first fisherman was called by Christ to share His life.

Only those who are filled with the eager and intense spirit of this adventure can endure temptations, drudgery, pain and suffering and can stand when free from conventional barriers. All are invited to venture forth on this great quest for life.

GREEKS ELECT OFFICERS AND ADOPT CONSTITUTION

Election of officers and the adoption of a constitution featured in the business of a meeting of the Interfraternity Council held Friday evening in the Pedagogical Library. As a result of the balloting Ridley J .Norton '22 was elected to serve as chairman during the coming year and Erwin E. Drost '23 was chosen secretary.

The new constitution which was adopted after discussion was drawn up by senior members of the council. It provides an outline by which the council will be able to conduct its business. The most important feature of its by-laws is the provision that a majority vote of delegates present shall be sufficient to pass a measure. The new constitution also does away with the faculty chairman on the council and provides for a chairman elected from the fraternity representatives.

Following a brief discussion on rushing the meeting was adjourned.
